Introduction

"If I was born as woman, I would raise in rebellion against any pretension on the part of man that woman is born to be his plaything. I have mentally become a woman in order to steal into her heart. I could not steal into my wife's heart until I decided to treat her differently than I used to do, and so I restored to her all her rights by dispossessing myself of all my so-called rights as her husband. And you see her today as simple as myself"

He expected great things from them in the areas of work concerning purity of life, removal of untouchability, propagation of Khadi. communal harmony and Swadeshi (Selections from Speeches and Writings of Mahatma Gandhi) & (Andrews, C. F. (2008) The teaching of ahimsa Mahatma Gandhi's Ideas) He said " In my own opinion men & women are but one their problems are one in essence the soul in both is the same the two live same life have the same feeling each is a complement to other one cannot live without one' s active help". He was painful when he observed that "of all the evils for which man has made himself responsible none is so degrading , so shocking or so brutal as his abuse of his better half. He was of the opinion that women were the embodiment of the sacrifice silent suffering humility faith & knowledge" .These were the qualities he expected for his Satyagraha & ahimsa hence he thought women could best fit in as the Satyagraha followers. The soul force or the truth force could emanate only from women he thought. Even in south Africa he could make his women followers to fight for their civil rights, embark upon the police with fortitude & get imprisoned without resisting.

Conclusion:
